

BRAGAGNOLO VINI : AN HISTORY OF EXCELLENCE MADE IN ITALY

The history of Bragagnolo Vini Passiti started in the '30s with a sharecropping contract. At that time, the Company had a mixed nature: it consisted of a cellar, woods and lands cultivated in cereals, mulberry trees for silk worms, cherry-trees, grapes and fodder for oxen. The reputation of the Company arrived quickly thanks to the quality of white and red wines. Then the hard work and the passion led to the specialisation in the production of Passito wines made of the best Moscato and Brachetto grapes, two excellences of this area.

The vineyard management has always been characterised by the respect for the earth ecosystem, considering the soil and the life that grows on it as an indivisible body and soul.
